COUNCIL TAKES CARE OF WEST SIDE; PLACE FOUR LIGHTS IN GREENWOOD.

Many Routine Matters Disposed of Last Evening With Parliamentary Debates to Liven Matters a Bit.

JOHN GUILER'S ULTIMATUM

Inform Council He Don't Propose to Pay Any Attention to the Fire Limit Ordinance—Meeting With Water Company Coming Soon.

Town Council met last evening and buckled down to a series of routine matters culled by occasional debates over parliamentary questions. As a final John A. Guiler, who had listened patiently throughout the session, announced that he intended to build a frame structure on his lot on North alley whether the fire limit ordinance affected him or not. Guiler was advised to consult the clerk and see whether he is in or out of the limits. Council adjourned.

Clerk Bixler started reading the minutes of the previous meeting as though he wanted to lower his record, but the pace was too strong and the clerk fell down at the first quarter when he struck the reports of Treasurer Bitter and Burgess Evans. He regained his stride at the half and clipped several seconds off his best previous mark by the time the three-quarters was reached. He romped down the home stretch as strong as at the start and finished in 10:10 1/4 which is speeding some.

The first matter taken up was to hear from a delegation of Chestnut street residents who want the non-resident property owners notified to lay pavements. The notices will be sent, but the Councilmen were under the impression that instead of sending these notices they would find the owners falling over themselves in haste to let contracts for the work. "Looks like some people like to get other people into fights with somebody," remarked Councilman Thomas. The other members concurred.

The Finance Committee made good sailing over the course. It occupied the floor just long enough for Chairman Thomas to report that he had been too busy to take up the matter of exonerations, but expected to get to work in a short time on the list. Bad sidewalks occupied the time of S. P. May, Chairman of the Street Committee. May started with a list of three but this grew to such amazing proportions before the discussion closed that Clerk Bixler will be overwhelmed with the notices that must be sent out directing repairs.

The Police Committee had nothing to report and then Chairman Keoser of the Light Committee was called. Keoser secured four arcs for Greenwood and an incandescent for South Sixth street, West Side. This last will light the home ward path of Councilman Storer. Solomon Lepley declared there is plenty of light in the water time when the trees are bare. Lepley lives on North Sixth street.

The Greenwood lights will be placed at the corners of Ninth and Leisenring, Ninth and Morrell, Eighth and Morrell and Eighth and Morrell. Lepley was on the war path last night. When Chairman Friel reported "nothing" when the Water Committee was called, Lepley said if there was nothing to report there should be. He complained that it is impossible to have fire hydrants placed with affairs between the borough and Water company unsettled as they are. President Millard said a meeting of the Water Committee will be arranged with the Connellville Water Company in the near future to adjust matters.

Chairman Storer of the Public Safety Committee reported that the well on the West Side, donated by the W. C. T. U. is out of commission. It is located on Main street at the Pennsylvania crossing. It was directed to have the well repaired, it having been the agreement that the borough would maintain it.

Chairman Clark of the Ordinance Committee presented a petition signed by 55 business men asking for the repeal of the present electric sign ordinance and passage of a more satisfactory one. The matter was referred to the Ordinance Committee. Lepley balked and wanted to explain why. Friel interjected a parliamentary objection. President Millard supported the West Side man because he believed it was an effort on the part of some parties to dodge the present ordinance and ignore its provisions. He wanted to make a motion that all persons having signs not conforming with the present ordinance be directed to remove them, but President Millard reminded him that Burgess Evans had that matter in charge.

The citizens of the Campbell Addition petitioned Council to direct the Hill Grove Company to lay a sidewalk along Snyder street, claiming that the road is at present "dangerous to life and limb" for pedestrians. The matter was referred to the Street

Committee. The petition of other Snyder street residents for the opening of Locust street, fenced in by John W. Stifford, was referred to the Borough Engineer and Borough Solicitors to determine whether the borough has any rights to those streets.

A communication from Attorneys Sterling, Hixbee & Matthews offering on behalf of John D. Friebe to settle the latter's claims for damages as a result of the paving of Meadow lane for $182.75, the amount of the paving bill against Mr. Friebe, was placed on file.

Councilman Friel gave notice that at the next meeting he will offer a motion to rescind the action of Council in settling with R. J. Welch for damages alleged to have been sustained.

Whether Contractor Bernard O'Connor should give a bond before starting the grading of the West Side hill created a discussion. O'Connor said he never did give bond before for grading and didn't think it necessary. He offered to go without pay until the work was completed. After a discussion in which Councilman Stillwagon said he never knew of a contract of this kind being let without a bond, O'Connor agreed to furnish the security, but said he would expect the terms of the contract relative to payments to be enforced. This requires certain amounts being paid as the work progresses. He will start on the work soon after June 1.

Chairman Storer of the Public Safety Committee brought forth an old amendment when he produced a bill for $50 due the Ripley Manufacturing Company for a relief valve purchased in 1903. This bill appears periodically, but none of the Councilmen knows anything about it.

The petition of the firemen for funds to send Hal Rogers to a health resort provoked some discussion. Chairman Thomas said the request should have been accompanied by a physician's certificate. It did not state the amount desired although another communication asked that $300 be appropriated from the Firemen's Relief Fund. Rogers is in bad shape and needs a change of air.

Stillwagon and Reynolds suggested amending the request, but Friel submitted an amendment to refer it to the Finance Committee. Thomas said he could not see what the Finance Committee could do with the matter. He replied to further suggestions from Friel by saying that he did not propose to investigate invalids. Friel's amendment was lost, he Brennan and Brant being the only three in favor of putting the matter up to the Finance Committee. The petition was filed. A physician's statement is desired and will be considered.

Chairman Friel reported good time being made on the new sewers for which the contracts were let recently.

Eagle to Scream at Dawson on Fourth of July

Special to The Courier.
DAWSON, May 27.—The Union Board of Trade of Vanderbilt, Dickerson Run and Dawson met last evening at 8 P. M. in the borough building. President A. J. Cochran presided. There was a good attendance and the meeting was enthusiastic and interesting. The different committees reported on progress on the matters they had in charge.

It was decided to accept the amusement committee's suggestion to hold an old fashioned Fourth of July celebration. The committee was instructed to proceed with arrangements for it. H. F. Cochran has given the use of his race track grounds, also his orchard. There will be all kinds of amusements, such as sack races, potato races, wheelbarrow races, egg races, etc. There will also be a horse ball game. The Railroad Trainman will hold their annual picnic and dance on that day and will erect a large dance pavilion in the vicinity of the grounds. The usual Saturday matinee race meet which would come on the Saturday before the Fourth will be put off until Monday, which will go to make up the sports. Good speakers will also be secured and it is possible that the Lake Erie railroad officials will be present also. As the yards are to be placed here they are more or less interested in the town. At any rate the eagle will scream loud and long.

BETTER TO ORDINANCE

Chief George Hetzel Refused to Receive a Petition for a New Ordinance. Chief George Hetzel refused to receive a petition for a new ordinance of the police when the new order directing officers to try all doors was under discussion. This ordinance provides that officers must try doors and notify owners when they are found unlocked after closing hours. This ordinance, explaining the Chief, was resubmitted by Burgess Solomon and since Burgess Evans took office instructions to police include the strict observance of the provisions in the 1877 statute. Hetzel denies that his instructions have any personal application.

Joseph Horvick was urged by his friends to be a candidate for the position, but declined to allow his name to be presented. Horvick told the boys he preferred not to be a candidate for the Second Lieutenantcy, though he was strongly urged by many members of the company to permit his name to be balloted on.

A HIGH TOMORROW

"This is the first of a series of 'hikes' to be taken by the boys from time to time and many points of interest will be visited. Only short walks will be attempted at first and as the boys get accustomed to walking, longer trips will be planned.

BURGESS BACKS CHIEF

Declines This Violation of the Automobile Regulations Must Come. Burgess Evans this morning emphasized the edict of Chief of Police George Hetzel regarding the enforcement of the automobile laws.

"There will be no more monkey business with the automobile drivers," he announced. Burgess Evans said the drivers of the motor hacks have been ignoring the statutes too long already. Orders have been issued to pull the next driver who attempts to cross Brimstone Corner faster than a walk. Speeding will also be discontinued.

George Moore's Condition. The condition of George Moore of Dawson, who was operated upon yesterday at the South Side private hospital, is still critical.

COMMENCEMENT IN DUNBAR TOWNSHIP.

Exercises at Leisenring Attend by Large Audience Last Evening.

ORATIONS OF THE GRADUATES

Were Clever and Well Handled—Address to the Class Was Delivered by Prof. Frizzell of State College. Presentation of Diplomas.

In the presence of one of the largest and most representative audiences ever assembled at the Dunbar Township High School auditorium at Leisenring No. 1 a class of 18 bright and promising young men and women was graduated last evening. Friends and patrons of the school from all over the township commenced to arrive as early as 7 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock, the hour set for the exercises, every seat was taken and chairs were placed about the hall for those who came later.

The commencement exercises in Dunbar township are an important event in the history of the schools and the interest manifested in them by the citizens of the township increases each year. A special street car conveyed the large crowds from Dickerson Run and Vanderbilt to and from the exercises. The best of attention was given by the large audience throughout the evening and as the result each speaker could be heard distinctly in all parts of the room. The program was well chosen and each orator dealt with the most vital questions of the day. The delivery of the speakers was very good and the manner in which they handled their subjects showed very careful study and preparation.

The decorations were unusually pretty. Blooming plants, ferns and palms were massed along the front of the stage while large bouquets of roses and red roses were placed on the piano. The pillars were wrapped with red and blue bunting and from the center of the chandelier to the four corners of the auditorium were festooned of red and blue bunting. High School pennants adorned the walls. The lights were capped with red shades which produced a very pretty effect. Never did the spacious auditorium present as attractive appearance. From 7 until 7:30 o'clock a delightful musical program was rendered by Friebe's orchestra. Promptly at 7:30 o'clock the class headed by Biddle Hornbeck, a member of the Board of Education, followed by Prof. John Frizzell, professor of English and Oratory in State College, entered the hall to the strains of a march, "The Part of the Guards," rendered by the orchestra, and took their places to form a semi-circle on the stage.

Carl Durwin Edwards, who carried off first honors of the class, opened the program with an oration, "The Happy Medium." He dwelt at length upon the specialist and his work. He said specialism is too much one sided. It cuts out men from the ranks of a splendid citizen. Every successful man must have a vocation and it should be founded upon a knowledge of life and men.

An oration, "The Educational Reform in China," by Miss Patricia O'Donovan was the next number. Miss O'Donovan was especially good. Her subject was a very practical one. She dwelt at length upon the educational reform in China and stated that if the education is weak it naturally follows that the government is weak. She spoke of the eagerness of the Chinese people to learn and also of the many excellent opportunities afforded them for learning.

A selection from "The Time, The Place and The Girl" was then rendered by the orchestra. "Systematic Philanthropy" was the subject of an interesting oration delivered by Miss Bertha Blaine Puchner. She said charity dates as far back as the organization of our homes. Religion puts its stamp upon it and it becomes universal. Miss Puchner's delivery was especially good. Her subject was a very practical one. She dwelt at length upon the educational reform in China and stated that if the education is weak it naturally follows that the government is weak. She spoke of the eagerness of the Chinese people to learn and also of the many excellent opportunities afforded them for learning.

"The Insurgents," by William J. Gallagher closed the orations. He spoke of the work of the insurgents from the discovery of America up until the present time and stated that it was only through the insurgents of today that the American people know what was going on in our legislative halls.

Following a selection, "The White City," by the orchestra, Biddle Hornbeck introduced to the class and audience Prof. Frizzell who delivered the class address. The class and the audience as well were fortunate in having the opportunity to listen to the interesting address delivered by Prof. Frizzell. He commenced his talk by congratulating the members of the class upon the completion of their work and also the Board of Education and the teachers who were connected with the township schools. In part he said: "Money invested in education is money well spent and in the long run it returns a large dividend. It will give the country a greater return than any investment ever made. The great tendency of the people today is to hurry a student through school and as a result many of them do not have a thorough education that they should have. There is a tendency in America to start our young people in school at too young an age. We are in too much of a hurry to get them out into the world and many do not know what occupation they want to choose.

"Education begins when we leave school. You cannot teach a boy or girl in a certain length of time. The purpose of the schools of today is to instill fundamental principles and to lay a good solid foundation. Let the world do the polishing. There never was a time when education was as free and there never was a time when the worth of an individual was so thoroughly recognized. We want men and women who are efficient."

In closing he urged the graduates to choose one profession and go into it with their might and main. In speaking of the immigrants he stated that they are doing the greater part of the work which is being done in America today and had been doing it for the last half century. Prof. Frizzell is a very eloquent speaker. In a very neat address Biddle Hornbeck presented the diplomas to the class. The second honors of the class were carried off by Alfretha Hardy and William Kennedy Galley. The affair last evening marked the closing of the commencement exercises.

H. F. BARKLEY SELLS MT. PLEASANT PHARMACY

Homor R. Rumbaugh, Recent Graduate, Pays Between $6,000 and $7,000 for Business.

H. F. Barkley has disposed of his drug store in Mt. Pleasant to Homor R. Rumbaugh, a recent graduate in pharmacy. The consideration involved was between $6,000 and $7,000. Mr. Barkley operated the Mt. Pleasant establishment as well as his drug store here on South Pittsburgh street. As the Mt. Pleasant store took too much of the time he preferred to devote to the pharmacy here, he decided to dispose of the business. It is said he contemplates extensive improvements to his store here. Mr. Rumbaugh, the new proprietor at Mt. Pleasant, is a well known young man of that town who is expected to make good in his new venture.

Unseasonable Weather is Bad for Merchants

Has the good old summer time decided to forsake the cold region for all time? The weather has been so unseasonable for the past couple of months that it seems to indicate that this section is doomed to eternal cloudiness and rain. There is hope, however, for December Day is close at hand and the rainy day of June should do better than either April or May have done. The temperature continues too low for comfort and is knocking the straw hat trade badly. Incidentally the demand for spring goods has been light on account of the unfavorable weather. The merchants have been getting the worst end of the weather argument because the winter was so late starting in last year that the fall trade was badly demoralized. The mercury this morning was 52, four degrees below yesterday morning's mark. Last evening 62 was recorded. The river fell over night from 3.32 feet to 3.04.

Sidebottom's

Horse Strayed

During Night

Major Sidebottom's horse strayed during the night and the Major was much perturbed when he reported the matter to Officer James Francis on Brimstone Corner this morning. As he poured his tale of woe into the ear of the sympathetic officer, a lad approached the two and asked if any one had lost a horse.

Sidebottom glanced up and saw his pet at the end of a rope. The horse had strayed to South Connellville and was captured by the lad. "Wait a minute, boy," commanded the Major as he reached into his jeans for a reward suitable for the occasion. He slipped the lad two nickels from an $10 pocketbook then started up the hill with the prodigal equine steed.

Abandon Hope

for Those on a

Sunken Vessel

United Press Telegram.
CALAIS, May 27.—Experts today said it is impossible to raise the submarine Pluvius before tomorrow. It is not believed any of the crew will be found alive. Divers have located the boat and found oil arising from the tanks. The boat was wrecked. This disproves the theory that one of the packet's wheels struck the submarine as it was coming to the surface from a plunge. Dredges and torpedo boat destroyers have built pontoons over the spot where the submarine went down.

It Has Eight Cars and All the Conveniences of Home Provided For the Boomers—Automobiles Take Some Over the Town For a While.

The Pittsburg Board of Trade Boomers arrived in town this afternoon promptly on schedule time. They were met by a delegation from the Chamber of Commerce and after introductions had been performed the visitors segregated and scattered over town, occupying their two hours' stay here by getting acquainted with the business men.

Chairman E. W. Horner of the Chamber of Commerce acted as Chairman of the reception committee. Secretary J. Fred Kurtz of the Chamber, David Wertheimer, S. M. Goodman, H. P. Barkley, E. P. Norton, W. N. Lewis, H. L. Carpenter, George A. Munson, James C. Munson, Frank Graham, J. H. Sweeney and other members of the Chamber and business men were on hand.

The automobiles of H. F. Barkley and James C. Munson carried those visitors who wished to get a glimpse of the town and who had no particular visit to make. Immediately upon the arrival of the train, which was held on the main line of the Baltimore & Ohio at the Yough bridge, members of the Bell Telephone connected the train with the telephone system here. The telephone system on the train is one of the big features of the big special train of eight cars. Each member of the Reception Committee took charge of the visitors in his particular line of duty and escorted the parties about town.

The party will leave at 3:30 for Scottsdale and Mt. Pleasant and will reach Pittsburgh tonight. The trip began last Tuesday.

PLASTER OF PARIS IS DOPE TO KILL BUGS

Officers About City Hall Started Campaign to Exterminate Roaches Today.

There being but one drunk in police court this morning, and he the lone occupant of the bottle, thoughts of those about City Hall turned to methods of exterminating the roaches which have taken possession of the building.

Clerk Bixler, Fire Chief Mitchell, Chief of Police Hetzel and Turnkey James Francis entered into the discussion of ways and means. Clerk Bixler stood out so strong for plaster of Paris and pulverized sugar that the remedy was adopted. Burgess Evans supplied the price of the ingredients and Fire Chief Mitchell purchased and mixed the dope. Then Officer James Francis supervised the stinking and if the roaches are not exterminated it is not the fault of the doughy guardians of health and safety about City Hall.

Clerk Bixler says the mixture will make the roaches thirsty and when they drink water the plaster of Paris will harden within them and result fatally. It is conservatively estimated that the roach population of the lockup exceeds that of persons in Fayette county.

BRANDEIS SUMS UP THE GLAVIS CASE AND SCORES BALLINGER.

Says He is a "Public Officer Weighed and Found Wanting" Before Committee Today.

PRAISE FOR MEN OUSTED

Declares Glavis and Kerby Were "Public Servants Discharged for Telling the Truth—Calla Ballinger 'Shifty' and 'Irresolute'."

United Press Telegram.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Attorney Brandeis, before the Congressional investigating committee, summed up Secretary Ballinger of the Interior Department as "irresolute," "shifty," "unethical," and a "public officer weighed and found wanting."

Brandeis dealt in cold, chronological facts and seldom ventured into the realm of oratory. He reviewed the history of the Cunningham claim and branded Ballinger unfit as the people's trustee. He said:

"In the spring of 1907 Ballinger agreed with Secretary Garfield to investigate the Alaskan coal lands Ballinger went to Seattle and then yielded to the claimants. The investigation stopped in December, in Washington, L. R. Glavis resumption of the investigation. The claimants are now 3,000 miles away so Ballinger consented. Glavis had scarcely left Washington before Secretary Moore appeared. Glavis in 3,000 miles away, so in security the Cunningham claims were clear listed. Moore then went west and Glavis wires 'I protest against listing the claims.' Ballinger then suspends the order. He exhibited, instead of resoluteness, a tendency to run to cover."

"Would anyone think of dubbing the Secretary 'Stonewall' Ballinger? Brandeis concluded by paying glowing encomiums to Glavis and Kerby whom he characterized as "public servants discharged for telling the truth."

Clever Stunts of Dancers At The Soisson

The Soisson theatre was well filled last evening at the second performance of "Stages of the Offense" by the Howell-Kelth company. The members of the company scored as they did on the first presentation of the play.

The big hit of the evening was Rametta and Lyman, a knockabout team. The work of this pair is sensational. Miss Lyman is a wonder. It is almost inconceivable that a woman can be so good in the strenuous, athletic work she does night in and night out. Both Rametta and Lyman are clever artists and their work is fast and furious. They unswayed repeated encores last night and if there are any athletic dancing stunts they cannot produce then theatre goers in Connellsville have missed them. Rametta and Lyman will appear at tomorrow afternoon matinee and night performance at the Soisson when "Across the Desert" will be put on by the Howell-Kelth company. This is a stirring drama, full of action from the opening act to the fall of the curtain, and abounding in realism. The far West.

Next week in addition to giving our friends to the women manager Fred Hobbs proposes to give away a hand some star line solid railroad man's watch. Up until Saturday night of next week each man attending the Soisson will get a ticket. The winner will be announced at the night performance.

The Famous "Holeproof" Hosiery Can Now Be Purchased Only At This Store

This Hosiery is Absolutely Insured Against Holes for Six Months

We have just secured the selling agency for the famous Holeproof Hosiery in this city. This is the original guaranteed hosiery that has been so widely advertised in the magazines but which has never yet been on sale at any store in town.

The guarantee which we reproduce on this page comes with every box of the hosiery. It is a promise that we will gladly redeem—if any of the hosiery needs darning or mending within six months it will be exchanged for new hosiery.

The manufacturers of this hosiery stand back of us in making this guarantee. They have used only the finest and best materials the market affords. They pay 63 cents a pound for Egyptian and Sea Island cotton, instead of buying the ordinary cotton at 12 cents a pound.

Every pair is stylish as well as comfortable. They are made to fit the ankle as smoothly as a glove fits the hand. They are soft and dainty yet they outwear other hosiery almost six to one.

Men's hose come in eleven colors and women's in six. Price from $1.50 to $3 a box of six pairs. Children's hose come only in black and tan at $3 a box of six pairs.

FAMOUS Holeproof Hosiery FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

There is only one difference between the common hosiery and "Holeproof." And that is that "Holeproof" wears six times as long as the other. Yet the price for both is the same.

"Holeproof" is made with 3-ply yarn in the body and 6-ply in the heels, toes and knees. This gives double the strength where the wear comes most.

Every pair is minutely inspected before it leaves the factory. It costs $30,000 a year for this inspection alone so you understand something of the quality that goes in "Holeproof."

It has taken 31 years to attain this perfection but the sales now amount to more than 3,000,000 pairs every year. No other guaranteed hosiery begins to equal such tremendous sales as this.

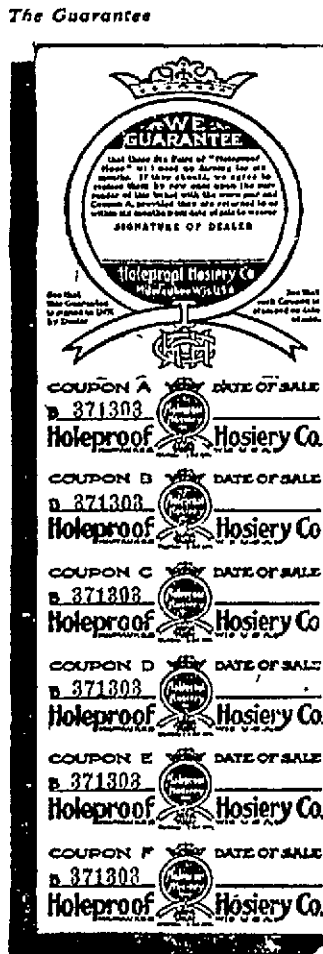

We invite everyone to call and examine this wonderful hosiery before purchasing. We want you to note how soft and comfortable it really is. We want you to see the attractive colors for yourself and to note the stylish appearance.

We know that once you have done this you will never again be satisfied with the common hosiery that costs just as much but needs to be darned every week.

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 27, 1910.

WELCOME TO THE PITTSBURGH TRADE BOOMERS.

Connellsville welcomes the Pittsburgh business men who are paying us a pop call this afternoon on their tour of the town. Their presence among us is proof that they think they need us, and we are sure we need them.

Upon a former visit to Connellsville, it was suggested to the Pittsburgh trade boomers that the efforts of Connellsville to have the Pittsburgh freight rate reduced extended to Connellsville should receive their sympathy and support, since this would tend to draw higher tonnage and blind factor and more securely the mutual business interests of the city and the coke region towns. Assistance was promised at that time, but it did not seem to have been weighty enough, possibly because it was not sufficiently insistent and persistent.

The visit of the Pittsburgh business representatives might be a proper occasion upon which to take up this important matter again; but, whether any action upon it is had today or not, Connellsville opens its gates in wide and cordial welcome to her guests, and expresses the earnest hope that nothing but mutual pleasure and mutual profit will flow through their hospitable portals.

THE AUTO-SPEEDERS AND THE LAW'S AUTHORITY.

The Connellsville police force will keep a more watchful eye upon reckless automobile driving especially through the crowded thoroughfares of the town.

It is time such action was being taken. The laws and ordinances should be enforced without regard to persons or circumstances. So reckless has become the running of many motorists in and around Connellsville that nothing but God's inscrutable providence has saved the community from the slaughter of its innocents and the maiming of its citizens. We have escaped this modern Moloch more by good luck, vigilant watchfulness and strenuous action than by any care or caution on the part of the average automobile driver.

One of the inevitable concomitants of the auto-fover is a lot of bludgeoning of the rights of the common herd, especially the pedestrian. The occupants of the auto seem to think the man who walks has no business being in the way. The sight of such a poor beggar trying to cross the street in front of the royal car is irritating to the joy riders' sense of superiority. They fume and fret, but they do not slacken their speed.

It would be highly unreasonable to require the motorist to slow down to a snail's pace, or to come to a full stop, in order to permit a pedestrian to cross the street, unless the circumstances were unusual; but it is much more unreasonable to assume that the driver of an automobile may run his machine at a mad pace through the crowded portions of a town or city.

We may add that it is also unlawful; and that it is the law which the Connellsville authorities propose to enforce, and which they should enforce, regardless of age, sex, color, previous condition or present pull.

SIDEWALK REFORM IN CONNELLSVILLE.

The Council has numerous evidences of a determination to enforce sidewalk reform in Connellsville. We congratulate the fathers on their awaked sense of plain duty. We trust they will see to it that this much-needed Connellsville reform is not permitted to lapse into neglect; he has been the custom hitherto. Sidewalk reform should be persistent, not spasmodic. In justice to those who lay good sidewalks either voluntarily or in compliance with the demands of authority, there should be no discrimination.

Especially should the Council compel the laying of modern sidewalks on all improved streets. Not less than one-third the cost of brick-paved streets is paid out of the town's general fund, that is to say it is paid by the community as a whole, and to the community as a whole the owners of abutting property on such streets owe it to provide promptly. If not simultaneously, sidewalks which comport in excellence with the street improvement so made, and if they do not do so it is the duty of the authorities to compel them thereto.

Property owners should need no urging. Public spirit and private interest should spur them to action. Street and sidewalk improvements of a modern character always enhance the value of abutting real estate even more than their cost.

The summer railroad schedules are due on Sunday.

Undue influence in making a will is a charge that should be established beyond peradventure of doubt. The presumption is properly against it.

Council is developing some parliamentary tactician, and even Clerk Fixter is suspected of sitting up at night with Smith's Handbook.

Scottdale is promised a good summer trade, in dog udders.

Many neighborhood towns are preparing to have a Hot Fourth now that Italy's Comet has turned tail and is backing away from us.

JEFF FREEMAN IS THE VICTIM

Of a Peculiar Misfortune That Came Upon Scott-
dale Man

IN TAKING SIGHT OF ONE EYE

Burgess Declares War Upon Unmuzzled Dogs—Joseph Love Committed to Examination by a Commissioner. Trade Boomers Here Today.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTTSDALE, May 27.—Jefferson Freeman, one of the best known men in Scottsdale has been the victim of a most peculiar and awful misfortune, the sight of his left eye having been lost to him as he discovered on awakening the other morning. There is a fear that the sight of the other eye may go in sympathy. A more hopeful view thus far entertained by the specialists which he has consulted is that the sight may return, and that the blindness of his eye may be only temporary, and may be restored by treatment.

The Dogs Are Doomed.
The agitation made by citizens who met a few days ago and passed resolutions condemning the presence of unmuzzled dogs in town, on account of the danger of hydrophobia, has borne fruit in an early notice by Burgess II. F. Ellis that the borough ordinances against the harboring of dogs and their running loose upon the streets without muzzles will be put in force on June first. Everyone who loves their dog will therefore be put to it to prove their affection for the canine by looking after the same.

Formerly of Here.
A great many people read with interest of Druggist Lester D. Jones working a negro thief who got into the drug store in Uniontown and tried to rob the cash register of about $500 of sent him money of the circus there yesterday. Jones was formerly in Scottsdale with Lawrence & Brooks of the Corner Drug Store.

Building Bottling House.
The West Overton Bottling Company at West Overton, of which S. C. Bonworth of town is the manager, has begun work on a new bottling house. It will be located just north of the two bonded warehouses and like them will be built of brick, the Bollinger-Andrews Construction Company of Pittsburgh having commenced work on the concrete foundation walls. The building will be 35x115 feet in dimensions and will be built one, two and five stories high, and will have a capacity of 50 barrels per day. This is the company's first bottling house there.

Trade Boomers Coming.
The trade boomers of Pittsburgh will arrive in their big special train in town shortly after The Courier gets here, and will remain an hour this afternoon, and then go to Mt. Pleasant. The train will be run in on the siding at the Pennsylvania railroad station and Agent C. M. McCracken has made all arrangements for the party's stay here so far as railroad comforts go. Two telephone men were here yesterday afternoon arranging the wires so that they may be connected up with the train that those aboard may call up friends. The local merchants will be out to give the Pittsburghers the glad hand, and the latter will make calls on the merchants. There is a big party of the boomers coming and their visit will be interesting.

Was a Close Game.
There was a close and interesting baseball game in the City League last evening at Louisa park, when the Scholastics defeated the Pipe Mill team by a score of 2 to 0. The battery for the Scholastics was Hockensbury and Doolley and for the Pipe Mill Tray and Long. A collection was taken up at the close of the game, and it is desired that the people be generous in these as money is needed for bats and balls and the keeping up of the ground, and the placing of benches for the fans.

Will Be Examined.
Joseph Love, a well known man of town, was committed to Greensburg yesterday afternoon by Justice of the Peace C. H. Uley under an old law, and Love will be examined by a commission to be appointed at the request of District Attorney W. T. Don to examine into Love's condition of mind. The man seems to be suffering from a severe form of delusion that a number of people are after him with the intention of killing him, and has sought protection of the police. He has entered houses and the people have become uneasy fearing that he might do some harm, although so far he manifested no such spirit. Constable Chas. M. Haines took Love to Greensburg.

Observed Anniversary.
Miss Carrie Shelley of North Scottsdale was the recipient of a number of handsome gifts upon the occasion of her seventh birthday anniversary, when a large number of her friends gathered at Miss Shelley's home. Social amusements and a nice lunch were features of the evening.

Minister Will Be Absent.
Rev. H. W. Miller, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church, will be absent from his church on Sunday. In the morning Rev. J. J. Hutchinson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will preach, and in the evening Rev. W. A. Roulson of Vandergrift will be the preacher and will speak on the subject of Local Option.

Saturday's Game.
The bad weather this week jangled baseball playing out of the ring badly but it expects to get back again on Saturday afternoon. The Pipe Mill team and the Plummers team expect to get into action at 3:30 o'clock and draw a good crowd to Louisa park. The City League has not had much practice thus far this season.

Voted on a Judge.
The Scottsdale Poultry and Pot Stock Association met at the Borough building last night and made further arrangements for the coming poultry show. It was voted that Judge Corman of Canfield be engaged for the show if he is not engaged at the time Home From Convention.

Miss Amy Porter of the Fayette County Sunday School Association to home from the World's Sunday School convention held in Washington, D. C.

The Stowaway

By LOUIS TRACY

Author of the "Pillar of Light," "The Wings of the Morning" and "The Captain of the Kansas."

Copyright, 1909, by Edward J. Clode

"You may be right. Indeed, I know you are right so far as Coko is concerned. When I went out to find out if one of the boats could not be cleared I noticed that a steering gear box had been pried open again. I had time for only a second's glance, but I was sure the damage had not been done by a bullet. So the Andromeda was doomed to be lost, no matter what happened."

"Coko will stand by the rest of us in our struggle for life, at any rate. But the Brazilians?"

"Have no fear of them. I, too, have watched San Benavides. I don't like the fellow and wouldn't place an ounce of faith in him, but De Sylva has brains, and he knows well enough that no ship from Brazil will come to Fernando Noronha in his behalf. In fact, he dreads a visit by a government vessel, in which event our frail chance of seeing that launch."

She felt rather than saw that he had suddenly grown rigid. His right arm flew out and drew her to him. "Sh-sh-sh!" he breathed, and pulled her behind a rock. Her woman's heart yielded to dread of the unseen. It pulsed violently, and she was tempted to scream. Despite his warning she must at least have whispered a question, but her own caught up to her. The light chug-chug of an engine and the snappings of a propeller came up to them from the sea. The steam launch was approaching. Perhaps they had been seen already! As if to fix their heads on this peril there was an interval of silence. Steam had been shut off. Phil touched the girl's lips lightly with his finger. Then he lay flat on the ledge and began to creep forward. It was impossible that he should run and warn the others, but it was essential, above all else, that he should ascertain what the men on the launch were doing and the extent of their knowledge. He found a tuft of the grass that clung to a crevice where its roots drew forth a slender, trailing vine. He ventured to thrust his head through this screen, following Domingo's example some hours earlier. Almost directly beneath his eager glance found the little vessel. She was darting past with the current. He peered down on to her deck as if from the top of a mast. A few minutes later the launch officers were grouped in her bows. Apparently they were more interested in the remains of the Andromeda than in the natural fortress overhead. Clustered round the hatch were some twenty soldiers, also smoking.

One of the officers pointed to the ledge. He was excited and emphatic. The man on the ledge gazed again, and the engine started again. Though Hozier knew not what was said, the significance of this pantomime was not lost on him. The local pilot was afraid of these treacherous waters in the dark, but next day Frado de Franco (which is the Indians' name for the Grande-pore rocks) would surely be explored if a landing could be made.

Away bustled the launch, but Hozier did not move until there was no risk of his figure being silhouetted against the sky. Even then he wormed his way backward with slow caution. His was crouched where he had left her, wide-eyed, motionless.

"Good job we came here," he said. "It is evident they mean to maintain a patrol until there is news of De Sylva one way or the other. It will be interesting now to hear what the gallant San Benavides says. If any ship comes to Fernando Noronha tonight she will be seen from the island long before any signal is visible at this point."

"Do you think the others saw the launch?" she asked.

"No—not unless some of the men strayed down the gully, which they were told not to do. The breakers would drown the noise of the engines and screw."

"There was a slight pause."

"Will you tell them?" she went on.

"Why not?"

"This time the pause was more eloquent than words. Quite unconsciously his lips formed the question:

"Of course, as you said a little while ago, we owe our lives to Dom Coko de Sylva," she murmured, as if she were reasoning with herself.

By chance, probably because Hozier stooped to help her to her feet, his arm rested lightly across her shoulders.

"I will not pretend to misunderstand you," he said. "If the Brazilians do not mean to play the game it would be a just punishment to let them rush on their own doom. But De Sylva may not agree with this sort of an officer, and, in any event, we must go straight with him until he shows his teeth."

"You seem to dislike Captain San Benavides," she said inconsequently.

"I regard him as a brazen ass," he exclaimed.

"Somehow that sounds like a description of a dead donkey, which one never sees."

"Mademoiselle!" came a voice from the lip of the ravine.

"One can hear him, though," laughed Hozier, with a warning pressure that suspiciously resembled a hug. "These two were children in some respects, quicker to test than to grieve, better fitted for mirth than tragedy."

"We are going to the landing place before it is too dark," he muttered angrily. "We must not show a light. In a few minutes the path will be most dangerous. Please make haste, mademoiselle. We did not know where you had gone."

He took her hand. Philip followed. He was young enough to long for an opportunity to tell San Benavides that he was a puppy, a mongrel puppy. After a really difficult and hazardous descent they found the others awaiting them in a rock-shrouded cove. The barest standing room was afforded by a patch of shingle and detritus. Alongside a flat stone lay three broad planks, tied together with cowhide. The center plank was turned up at one end. This was the catamaran, which De Sylva had dignified by the name of boat.

"Where have you bin?" growled Coko. "We've lost a good ten minutes. You ought to have known, Hozier, that it's darkest just after sunset!"

"We could not have started sooner, sir."

"Why not? We were kept waiting up there, searching for you."

"That was our best slice of luck today. Had any of you appeared on the ledge you would have been seen from the launch."

"Not launch?"

"The launch that visited us this morning. Ten minutes ago she was standing by the foot of the rock."

Philip spoke slowly and clearly. He meant his news to strike home. As he anticipated, De Sylva broke in.

"You saw it?" he asked, and his deep voice vibrated with dismay.

"Yes, I even made out, by actions rather than words, that the darkness alone prevented the soldiers from coming here tonight. The slipper would not stick."

De Sylva said something under his breath. He spoke rapidly to San Benavides, and the latter seemed to be cowed, for his reply was brief. Then the ex-president reverted to English.

"I have decided to send Marcel and Domingo ashore first," he said. "They will select the safest place for a landing. Marcel will bring back the catamaran and take off Sir Hozier and the young lady. Captain Coko and I will follow, and the others in such order as San Benavides thinks fit. The catamaran will only hold three with safety, but Marcel believes he can find another for Domingo. Remember, all of you, silence is essential!"

AFTER FOUR YEARS OF MISERY

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"For four years my life was a misery to me. I suffered from irregularities, terrible dragging sensations, extreme nervousness, and that all gone feeling in my stomachs. I had given up hope of ever being well when I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Then I felt as though new life had been given me, and I am recommending it to all my friends."

After a really difficult and hazardous descent they found the others awaiting them in a rock-shrouded cove. The barest standing room was afforded by a patch of shingle and detritus. Alongside a flat stone lay three broad planks, tied together with cowhide. The center plank was turned up at one end. This was the catamaran, which De Sylva had dignified by the name of boat.

Bell Service on Special for Excursionists

The Bell Telephone Company has equipped its past record in providing up to date telephone service for the Pittsburgh train excursionists, pilgrims in Connellsville today. Each car in the train has a 20-wire local covered cable attached to its full length and these cables terminate in a jack box. The jack boxes at the end of each car are connected by a pair of plugs and flexible cords, so that if the train "brakes" the cords will pull out and leave the wiring system intact. The jack boxes are also connected with the switchboard and two telephone stations in each car. The telephone exchange is in the center of the train and the switchboard has a capacity for ten lines. By this plan telephone conversations may be carried on by the excursionists from car to car and from any of the 10 telephone stations in the train is running between stops.

In order to give uninterrupted service, the Bell company has provided two operators who alternate in performing their duties. The operators are C. G. Klocke and A. J. Allen. At every stop two special telephone loops have been installed so that when the train comes to a standstill it will be immediately connected to the local Bell telephone exchange and thence to Pittsburgh direct. At Johnstown, Altoona and Cumberland where the excursion train stopped over night, it was connected directly with the Pittsburgh Long distance exchange and the connections were maintained all night. This put the train in an extra touch with the homes of the excursionists as though they were actually in Pittsburgh.

The service is in charge of Division Manager M. C. Rorty and S. B. Ridge for the Central District & Printing Telegraph Company, and District Manager A. G. Ferry for the American Telephone & Telegraph Company.

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said: 'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was something about it that made it so different from any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"

Albany, N. Y., May 27.—The senate and assembly put the screws finally on race track bookmaking when the most important of the series of An-knew-Perkins race track bills were passed and sent to Governor Hughes.
In the senate, Senator Ames suc-

the section of the Percy Gray law, which relieves from liability directors of race tracks which post signs prohibiting gambling, was passed.

ON TO IRELAND.

Meet Me at Blarney Castle is The Slogan of Irish-Americans.

The Irish Home Going Movement Association of the United States is urging as many Irish-Americans as possible to visit their native country this summer. The association believes that much can be done for Ireland by Irishmen in the United States if they visit that country and examine its industrial conditions. Thousands of Irishmen in America have decided to go and great preparations are being made in Ireland to welcome those who return to the Emerald Isle. A trip to Ireland is not at all expensive, but any Irishman or others who intend going should see Manager Ruskovic of the Foreign Department of the First National Bank at once. Ocean travel is unusually cheap this year and extremely reservations should be made without delay.

crime, but it is believed the woman was jealous of the attention shown the negress by her husband.

Going Away Soon?

Surely Not Without One of These Excellent Bags or Suit Cases or Trunks, Perhaps.

Matting Suit Cases $1.—Full 21 inch size, made just like a leather suit case, except the sides and ends are matting covered. For a short trip it is handy for women travelers, combining lightness of weight with size.
Well made, too, with leather corners and all the places that receive the knocks are riveted.

Indestructo Trunks $22.50, $25.—Do you want a lifetime trunk? One that can't even get lost without eventually coming back to you? Nor can you bust it up—short of letting a pilot driver hit it. Then buy an "Indestructo" with rounded corners over cold rolled steel, hardwood runners, steel rivets and shoes and heavily braced throughout, the "Indestructo" won't perish. A number on a brass tag near the lock directs its return to the factory from whence it is returned to the store, then to the purchaser. Each buyer's name is put on file for just such an emergency. Two sizes. A written guarantee accompanies each trunk.

Two of the Best Values I Ever Saw

Said a traveling salesman the other day when spending an idle moment. He was examining a suit case and bag at $5 each. Both were cowhide and, at the price, he thought they were seconds. If so no dis-figurements were to be found, and we agreed with him—they are good.

The Suit Case, $5.—Genuine cowhide, smooth and solid, full quota of inside straps, shirt fold, linen lined, sewn and riveted.
Tan Bag, $5.—Long grain cowhide, genuine leather lining, full length pocket.

The Bags, $5.—Black patent English cross grain cowhide with maroon lining. Inside pocket, steel frame, lock and end slides.

Suits. About the same tho', except in name and price. Wear just as long, hold their shape as well, even as indi-

If they don't fit so when the digerence in a name is money in my pocket I select a Wright-Metzler Suit.

Those wanted colors—blues, greys and mixtures in serge, worsted, cashmere and fancy stripe stuffs are stylish for now.
